Dear Foster:

Welcome home!

I have talked with Allen, as well as with AG Gullion, about a special Christmas message which the President, the Queen and the President of France might propose and invite other chiefs of state to join in.

We know God's love is the hope of the world. Let us help to reveal it while we have opportunity so to do.

If you decide to proceed with it, I would be delighted to join with anyone you designate in the task of formulating it.

Cordially,

File
